

Selection Criteria & Application Form Dance Studies Bursary

The Royal Academy of Dance has a limited bursary fund available for the Dance Studies (GCSE and A Level) courses in the 2024/25 academic year financially students and applicants.

An application submitted via this form will be considered for the following bursary:

- A partial contribution of £500 towards Dance Studies tuition fees.

Each bursary will be awarded on the basis of the selection panel's judgement. Selections will be based solely on the evidence presented in this application form.

In section 2a of the application form, applicants should be able to demonstrate that they:

- Are enthusiastic, energetic and determined to participate in dance
- Have a strong commitment to self-development
- Possess good communication and interpersonal skills
- Take a proactive and committed approach to their dancing
- Are highly motivated
- Are keen to succeed

In section 2b of the application form, applicants should explain how receiving a bursary would support them in studying on a Dance Studies course. You should be able to describe if you are likely to apply for the course or continue study should you NOT receive the bursary, and why. You may be required to disclose personal financial circumstances.

Selection process

The bursary selection process will be administered by the RAD and the application form will be shared with representatives from the organisation.

It will not be possible to defer this bursary.

You must submit your application in English, however in making its decisions, the selection panel will take into account that English may not be your first language (please ensure this is communicated within your application).

Decisions are made at the discretion of the Learning and Participation Department at the RAD. The RAD's choice of bursary recipient/s is final.

Bursary applications should be submitted by email to dancestudies@rad.org.uk

Please save each file in the following format before submission:

<<nameapplication.doc>>

e.g. if your name is John Smith, save your file as:

John_Smith_application.doc

Please include <<Dance Studies Bursary Application>> in the email subject heading.

Applications must be received by 31 July 2024.

You will receive notification of the outcome of your application no later than 1 September 2024.

Please submit your application by email, paper copies will not be accepted.
